

A CHRISTMAS VISIT TO TYNTESFIELD
Wednesday December 16th

'Tyntesfield all aglow' is the title of the special programme at this spectacular Gothic mansion near Bristol – so our visit starts with a buffet tea, with sandwiches and cakes, mulled wine and mince pies in the Cow Barn Cafe then just before 5.00pm we go up to the house which will be specially open and lit up, with attendants in Victorian costume.

At 6.30pm we go to a concert in the nearby chapel, an outstanding Gothic masterpiece, modelled on Sante Chapelle in Paris. The choir, 'Barley Rye' will perform a programme of folk carols, traditional carols and wassail songs.

Price £37.00 members. £42.00 non members, to include coach travel, buffet tea, mulled wine, mince pies and concert ticket. Entry to house free to NT members. £5.00 for non NT members which will be collected on the day. We advise early booking as tickets to the concert and the house viewing have to be prebooked and last minute tickets to these may not be available.

We leave Stroud at 2.30pm (2.15pm at Eastcombe) and return at 8.45pm. Please notify Julie Shipman for pickup at Eastcombe.
